increasing interest manifested by the militia of the States is evidenced by the high percentage of attendance at the annual encampments and the generally excellent military spirit of the troops. With the liberal increase of the appropriation made at the last session of Congress for the benefit of the militia, it is earnestly hoped that the State military authorities will, by an increased allowance of ammunition, foster and develop the efficiency of the rank and file in target firing. Much benefit, he thinks, would undoubtedly result from the establishment during each encampment of an officers' school for instrucmissioned officers school (the captain as instruc-tor), for instruction in company drill, duties of guards and sentinels, and the administration of a general of States, or application of the governors, to aid in the instruction of both officers and non-

s not a sufficient incentive, in the opinion of the often to the pecuniary interest of the men to remain in the ranks, as a private on extra duty receives more pay than the ser-cant-major or quartermaster sergeant of a regiment.

The Adjutant-General thinks that the pay of the lowest non-commissioned officers should not be less than $25, and that the pay of the entire class should be readjusted on the suggested pay for the lowest position to $50 or $55 for the highest.

ON THE SURJECT OF DISCUSARGE.

ON THE SUBJECT OF DISCHARGES n the army, the report states that the presence in the ranks of nearly 70 per cent. of the legal trength of the Army, with the service ranging from three to thirty-five years, indicates clearly that the great majority of the men who desert or seek their discharge is limited to that class who seek their discharge is limited to that class who have less than three years' service. In order to eliminate from the Army, without injury to the Government, men either inapt for military service or rendered restless and discontented by the demands and restraints of a soider's life, the Adjutant General recommends that, except where long and faithful service constitute a strong element of favorable consideration, discharges be made purchasable by the payment of a sum sufficient to reimburse the Government the expense of recruiting and transportation.

prison at Fort Leavenworth, the report says, has been satisfactorily conducted during the past year, and the prison has probably reached the limit of its growth while the Army remains at its present standard. The accommodations are believed to be sufficient for the number of prisoners which it may be necessary to send to the prison.

During the year forty-eight persons were committed to the Government hospital for the insane by the order of the Secretary of War. Five were officers, thirty-four enlisted men, seven military prisoners, and two late soldiers of the Army.

In conclusion, the Adjutant-General states that the work accomplished by his office during the year has been highly satisfactory.

VOTING BY GASLIGHT. The Day Opened Early in Alexandria-A Full Vote Predicted.

Special Dispatch to THE EVENING STAR. ALEXANDRIA, Nov. 8 .- The active politicians, reubilcan and democratic, have been busy since daylight, for the polls opened at 6:52, and in one of the wards lights were required for a while. The State democratic committee rooms and the Young Men's Democratic Club rooms were open in Washington Hall. The republicans had local headquarters in each ward, and as "vote early" has often been impressed upon the city voters, the ballot boxes were far from empty three hours after the polls opened. The bars throughout the street are required by law to be closed, but the information is that the front doors are closed, but it is thought other entrances are open.

The intelligence received this morning from such sections of the State as have reported to the democratic candidates will be elected.

Staunton, Va., Nov. 8.—The weather is fair. All is quiet, and there is a falling off in the republican vote, owing to dissatisfaction among both whites and negroes. The democrats appear to be polling their full strength. The indications are that this city will be close, with the chances in favor of the democrats. The republicans have carried it by good majorities for several years.

The intelligence received this morning from such sections of the State as have reported to the democratic central committee is to the effect that so far as local managers can judge a full vote will be brought out on both sales. In a number of counties local issues make up a portion of the canvass, but throughout the State the issue is—Mahone or Barbour. The usual array of ticketholders, canvassers, &c., surround each poll. The republican ward committees are active, and last night the Young Men's Democratic Club obtained a number of volunteers to take care of voters in blocks of ten, and make, all day, a vigorous neighborhood canvass. borhood canvass.

The central democratic committee had not received this afternoon any information tending to diminish their confidence in democratic success. The indications of a full vote continued in all the districts heard from. By Associated Press. A FULL VOTE BEING POILED. ALEXANDRIA, Va., Nov. 8.— The day opened cloudy, but the sun soon came out with a baimy atmosphere. by the Friends of all Candidates, New York, Nov. 8 .- The city is quiet to-day and the voting is going on earnestly. Up to 11 o'clock, in a majority of the districts, one-third of the vote had been poiled. Reserves of police were held at had occur points. Reserves of ponce were need at headquarters to answer any call, and patrol wagons were ready for their transportation.

Advices from throughout the St. te indicate that a large vote is being polied, many places reporting it the heaviest ever cast. All points report line weather, and an unusual interest in the result of the day's election.

The united labor people energetic.

The united labor people are as energetic as last year, but the indications seem to point to a reduced vote for their ticket. It seems as though Louis F. PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 8.-The election in Pennsylvania to-day is for State treasurer for a term of serve twenty-one years. The republican candidates are Win. B. Hart for State treasurer, and Henry W.Wildiams for judge of the Supreme Court. The democratic ticket is Bernard J. McGrann for treasurer, and J. Ross Thompson for Supreme Court judge. The probibition candidates are Dailas C. Irish and Simon C. Chase. Comparisons in these despatches will be made with the vote for State tre surer in 1885, when Quay (rep.) had a piurality of 43,516 in a total vote of 623,762, divided as follows: Quay (rep.), 324,634; bay (dem.). vided as follows: Quay (rep.), 324,634; Day (dem.), 281,178; Spangler (pro.), 15,047; Whitney (G. In this city, however, the campaign has been one of the most exciting and bitter of the past decade. The republican city ticket is Wm. R. Leeds for sheriff, J. Maloney for controller. George corder of deeds, and John P. J. Sensenderfer for city commissioner. The law requires the election of a minority commissioner. Three are to be chosen and the nominees of the two parties are therefore virtually elected. For the city judiciary, as is customary here, both parties have endorsed the same candidates, viz: D. Newilinieil, Heñry Reed and F. Amadee Bregy for judges of the Courts of Common Pleas and Joseph C. Ferguson for Judge of the Orphans' Court. There being no opposition the four named will of course be returned elected.

THE INDEPENDENT BOLT. The independent republicans refused to support Leeds, the nominee of the party, on the ground of "bossism," asserting that his nomination had been fixed up by the party leaders long in advance of the nominating convention, and that it was forced through against the wishes of the people. On this issue the independents received the support of several republican daily journals, which have vigorously advocated the election of Krumbhaar, the democratic candidate for sheriff, while at the same time giving support to the other republican vigorously advocated the election of Krumbhaar, the democratic candidate for sheriff, while at the same time giving support to the other republican candidates. The regular republicans, however, contended that Leeds deserved the office by reason of his faithful and energetic work for the party during the past several years as chairman of the republican city committee. An active personal canvass has been made by Messrs, Leeds and Maloney, who, traveling at all times together during the campaign, have attended and addressed massmeetings in nearly every one of the thirty-one wards of the city.

A feature of the campaign has been what is termed the "religious issue." The Personal Liberty League, which is composed of 336 societies, including all the oldest German singing societies in the city, endorsed the entire democratic ticket with the exception of Recorder of Decds, for which office it gave endorsement to Pierle, the republican candidate. The league claims a membership of 30,000 voters. It announced its opposition to the sunday closing laws and entered the campaign with the avowed purpose of simply showing its strength, which, it declared, would be used henceforth in alding the election of legislators and city officials who would work to secure repeal of the laws which comeeled saloons and places of

In this they have brought to their aid the active In this they have brought to their aid the active support of many ministers and church-going people who have entered the fight to prevent the Personal Liberty League from gaining a foothold in local political affairs. It will thus be seen that the sheriffairy campaign has been a decidedly mixed one. In 1865 Rowan (republican), for sheriff, received a piumility of 11,915 in a total vote of 142,966.

The weather is cloudy, but pleasant, and voting in this weather is cloudy, but pleasant, and voting in this city is progressing actively and quietly now, although one precinct in the fourth, the colored ward, was not opened until twenty minutes of 10, owing to the sickness of one of the democratic judges of election, and the filling of his place by a judge not acceptable to the republicans. Congressinan Geo. F. Bowden was arrested shortly after the precint opened, while harranguing the colored voters, the democratic judges ruling that he was disturbing the peace. Another republican politician was arrested for interfering with voters in one of the white wards. Both were released upon their own recognizance to appear Friday to upon their own recognizance to appear Friday to answer the charge. PROBABILITY THAT THOSE RESPONSIBLE FOR THE HORROR MAY ESCAPE PROSECUTION. CHICAGO, NOV. 8.—A Valparaiso, Ind., special says: The grand jury in Valparaiso yesterday completed its investigation of the Koutz Rairoad horror. The investigation has been thorough, every available witness who it was supposed could give any information on the subject having been summoned. Though the grand jury report is not yet made public, it is said two indictments have been found. Lawyers are of the opinion that a prosecution will be fruitless. Indiana legislators have long since abolished the common law in all criminal cases, substituting special statutes. There is no statute bearing directly on criminal carelessness, hence the probability of the indicted men escaping punishment.

The bonds required are $250,000 on the first suit and $50,000 on the second. Judge Seane dissented, his private opinion being that a lawyer should have been named, so as not to fritter away the money on lawyer's fees. Complications are also loreseen in securing juries, as the court has held on a previous occasion that a marshal is not competent to summon jurors where he is a party to the suit.

Within a radius of 20 miles of Brackett, which sometimes bears the name of Fort Clark, and which is a large United States post, there has been established a gang of desperadoes, who number thirty old men and stop at nothing. They have stolen cattle and horses, cut fences, burned ranchmen's dwellings and kidnapped, mobbed or murdered every man not in sympathy with them and whom they could catch. Mrs. Cleveland Bandles the Ribbons A PLEASANT RIDE ON A TALLY-HO AND A LUNCHEON AT

From the Philadelphia Press, To-day. Mrs. Cleveland and her mother spent another delightful day in the country yesterday. The chief feature of the day was a ride on Samuel P. Houston's tally-ho, Mrs. Cleveland herself handling the ribbons most of the way and showing again the courage and skill that awakened the admiration of every one at "Wootton" in September. The taily-no left the residence of the Rev. Mr. Wood and Mrs. Wood, whose guest Mrs. Cleve-land is, about 10 in the morning. The route lay down the Wissahickon Valley and over to Over-brook, where the party took luncheon at the resi-dence of Mr. Wistar Morris. The party returned dence of Mr. Wistar Morris. A Divided Church. TROUBLE IN SAVANNAR OVER THE PASTORATE OF REV. A special to the Philadelphia Press, from Savannah, Ga., November 7, says: The Independent Presbyterian church here is almost split to pieces over the question of re-electing Rev. Leonard Woolsey Bacon, pastor of that church. His call for one year will expire on December 1. On next Sunday his congregation will vote on the question of making his call permanent. Dr. Bacon came to Savannah from Connecticut. On Sunday, July 3, last he preached one of the most remarkable ser-mons ever heard in the South. It was a Fourth of July sermon, and too full of Northern sentiment July sermon, and too full of Northern sentiment for many of the hearers. A culogy of Lincoln awakened bitter thoughts and memories, and an allusion to the Scriptural passage which says that the Lord chasteneth those he loveth was not relsan feeling, but admitted that his patriotic I rvor had, perhaps, led him to tread on delicate ground. Soon it was intimated that br. Bacon was not quite sound in doctrine. He had been charged with not being orthodox once before. That was in Philadelphia. He was indicted by the presbytery of that city. The body examined him and decided that he would do if he would "take the assent," would preach pure Westminster doctrine unadul-terated. This he would not do, and so became a sort of theological free lance. Hisopponents, who have various grievances, claim that they will de-feat him for re-election by a majority of 100. The Anti-Poverty Society in London.
